

Sierra Mattair

Fort Collins, CO • (831) 428-5555 • smattair@colostate.edu • linkedin.com/in/sierra-mattair

PROFILE

- Strong interest in environmental consulting and corporate sustainability practices.
- Passionate environmentalist driven to make a positive impact.
- Work experience in the food and retail industry with a focus on collaboration and teamwork.
- Coursework in the area of natural resources and sustainability, providing a solid foundation for a career in this field.
- I am very eager and excited to learn more and expand my knowledge in the fields of natural resources and sustainability.
- Interested in gaining more hands-on experiences and learning more about my emerging career in environmental consulting.
- Collaborative in groups but can strive individually.
- Reliable, hard-working, and dedicated to reaching goals.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science

Expected May 2026

Major: Ecosystem Science and Sustainability

Minor: Business Administration

Colorado State University, Fort Collins, Colorado

WORK EXPERIENCE

Associate, Old Navy

June 2024 - Present

Fort Collins, Colorado

- Work with customers to help them with their needs or solve problems they might have
- Brainstorm with team members on group projects and work to find the most productive outcome for the company
- Connect with peers at work as well as customers to create relationships and build skills

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

- | | |
|--|-------------|
| • Ecology, LIFE320 | Fall 2024 |
| • Global Climate Justice, ESS365 | Fall 2024 |
| • Geospatial Science, NR319 | Fall 2024 |
| • Sustainable Watersheds, WR204 | Spring 2024 |
| • Systems Theory, ESS130 | Spring 2023 |
| • Ecosystem Watershed, ESS120 | Fall 2022 |
| • Information Management for Sustainability, ESS129 | Fall 2022 |
| • Foundations of Environmental Sustainability, GES101 | Fall 2022 |

CERTIFICATIONS

Institutional Review Board (IRB) Certification

February 2025

Online Course, IRB Administration, CITI

